

DIA DE MUERTOS

Dia de Muertos altars traditionally feature a saint. We selected Saint Peregrine, Patron Saint of the ill, in honor of all those affected by COVID-19.

CARLOS ESCOBAR MEJIA

Born in El Salvador, Carlos lived in the U.S. for 40 years. He was first to die of COVID-19 in ICE custody.

LORENA BORJAS

A Mexican immigrant and Trans rights activist, Lorena passed away from COVID-19 in New York City.

AUREA YOLOTZIN SOTO MORALES

Known to friends as "Yoshi", she was the first child to die of COVID-19 in North Carolina. She was in 2nd grade.

VINCENT SEBASTIAN IBARRIA

A native of San Antonio, Texas, Spc. Ibarria was killed in Afghanistan earlier this year. He was 21.

VANESSA GUILLEN

Vanessa was the daughter of Mexican immigrants who volunteered to serve her country. She was 20.

ANDRES GUARDADO

Andres worked two jobs and was going to school when he was killed by LA Sheriff's Deputies. He was only 18.

GEORGE FLOYD

George Floyd was a beloved son, brother, and father. His killing inspired a national movement for justice.

BREONNA TAYLOR

Breonna Taylor was an essential worker, serving her community as an EMT. Her family still seeks justice.

RUDOLFO ANAYA

A native of New Mexico, Rudolfo was a pioneer in Chicano literature who inspired generations of artists.

RUTH BADER GINSBURG

The daughter of an immigrant, Ruth was a strong advocate for women's equality and a Supreme Court Justice.

JOHN LEWIS

John was a civil rights activist and U.S. Congressman who helped America live up to its promise for everyone.

